

Multiple Choice (10 marks)

1. What one of the following is not a key management skill in planning?
 - (a) Conceptual skills
 - (b) Analytical skills
 - (c) IT and computing skills
 - (d) Communication skills
2. Which statement is NOT true of a crisis management team?
 - (a) All members should be trained in media relations.
 - (b) A member of senior management should be included in the team.
 - (c) A lawyer should be included in the team.
 - (d) All members should be trained in group decision making.
3. The purposes for which the information is used is in the public's interest.
 - (a) 1,2
 - (b) 1,3
 - (c) 2,3
 - (d) 1,2,3
4. Secondary data has two important advantages over primary data. It is:
 - (a) Capable of compensating for rapid environmental changes and technical improvements.
 - (b) Always available and complete.
 - (c) Seldom obsolete and usually fits the dimensions of your problem.
 - (d) Generally cheaper to gather than primary data and takes less time to find.
5. The process of identifying publics who are involved and affected by a situation central to an organization is called a(n)
 - (a) exploratory survey
 - (b) situation interview
 - (c) communication audit
 - (d) stakeholder analysis

True / False (10 marks)

Answer True or False

6. True or False: The Audit Bureau of Circulation does not provide information on readership for publications.
7. True or False: A corporation is independent from its managers, employees, investors, and customers, allowing for perpetual succession and asset ownership.
8. True or False: Subjection to emotional exploitation is solely linked to financial gain and does not impact personal relationships.
9. True or False: A crisis management campaign occurs when parties involved share common emotional convictions regarding a decision's consequences.
10. True or False: Services are characterized by intangibility, value, variability, inseparability, and profitability.

Long Form Response (20 marks)

Answer each question with a clear and complete explanation.

11. Discuss the principle of utilitarianism in business decision-making, specifically addressing how the concept of "the greatest good for the greatest number" influences ethical choices.
12. Discuss the various means by which businesses can influence government decision-making, considering the avenues of approach, breadth of transmission, and content of communication.

End of Paper