

Multiple Choice (10 marks)

1. Why does Parfit oppose equality?
 - (a) He argues that an unequal society is inevitable.
 - (b) He claims that by giving priority to the needs of the poor, we can increase equality.
 - (c) He asserts that we are each responsible for our poverty.
 - (d) He rejects the idea of equality altogether.
2. What is an act jure imperii?
 - (a) An act is jure imperii when undertaken by an international organisation
 - (b) An act is jure imperii when undertaken in an official State capacity
 - (c) All acts undertaken by State officials are acts jure imperii
 - (d) An act is jure imperii when undertaken by a State corporation
3. Dworkin argues that it is only a conception of equality of resources that can secure the ideal of equality of welfare. How does he suggest this aspect of equality to be measured?
 - (a) When no-one would prefer another's bundle of resources to his or her own.
 - (b) By reference to the ownership of private property.
 - (c) By the amount of income tax paid by individuals.
 - (d) When the community determines that equality has been achieved.
4. What is the purpose of politics, according to Aristotle?
 - (a) To advance the interests of politicians.
 - (b) To produce virtuous citizens and encourage righteousness in individuals.
 - (c) To obtain power.
 - (d) To secure justice by abolishing slavery.
5. Was the use of armed force permitted prior to the United Nations Charter?
 - (a) Armed force was prohibited
 - (b) Armed force was permitted with no restrictions
 - (c) Armed force was permitted subject to few restrictions
 - (d) Armed force was not regulated under international law prior to 1945

True / False (10 marks)

Answer True or False

6. True or False: The idea of 'natural law' first appeared in Greek thinking, influencing later legal and philosophical developments.
7. True or False: Friedrich Kelsen was the first jurist to study the comparative aspect of law, focusing on legal positivism.
8. True or False: Dworkin's notion of law as integrity does not support the idea that it opens the door to authoritarianism.
9. True or False: The Analytical School posits that a custom becomes law when it is recognized and endorsed by judicial decisions.
10. True or False: Codification of law simplifies legal interpretation and makes it more accessible to the public.

Long Form Response (20 marks)

Answer each question with a clear and complete explanation.

11. Discuss the issue of 'fragmentation' in international law, focusing on how the coexistence of different legal regimes can lead to divergent rules and implications for governance.
12. Discuss the concept of civil law, focusing on how it establishes rights between individuals and the mechanisms it provides for redress in cases of rights violations.

End of Paper