

Multiple Choice (10 marks)

1. Which of the following countries invested the largest fraction of its GDP in renewable energy in 2015?
 - (a) China
 - (b) Japan
 - (c) Chile
 - (d) India
2. As of 2019, about what percentage of Americans say it is very important to have free media in our country without government/state censorship?
 - (a) 50%
 - (b) 60%
 - (c) 70%
 - (d) 80%
3. Most Latin American countries achieved independence
 - (a) shortly after World War II
 - (b) in the 1960 s
 - (c) around the time of World War I
 - (d) in the early nineteenth century
4. As of 2019, which of the following had the lowest life expectancy?
 - (a) Brazil
 - (b) China
 - (c) Mexico
 - (d) Iran
5. Which of the following causes more deaths globally each year (as of 2017)?
 - (a) Diarrheal diseases
 - (b) Diabetes
 - (c) Dementia
 - (d) Road injuries

True / False (10 marks)

Answer True or False

6. True or False: As such the National Commission for the Development of Indigenous Peoples recognizes the language of the Kickapoo, who immigrated from the United States, and recognizes the languages of the Guatemalan indigenous refugees. The Mexican government has promoted and established bilingual primary and secondary education in some indigenous rural communities.
7. True or False: On 9 December 2010, The Sun published a front-page story claiming that terrorist group Al-Qaeda had threatened a terrorist attack on Granada Television in Manchester to disrupt the episode of the soap opera Coronation Street to be transmitted live that evening. The paper cited unnamed sources, claiming "cops are throwing a ring of steel around tonight's live episode of Coronation Street over fears it has been targeted by Al-Qaeda." Later that morning, however, Greater Manchester Police categorically denied having "been made aware of any threat from Al-Qaeda or any other proscribed organisation." The Sun published a small correction on 28 December, admitting "that while cast and crew were subject to full body searches, there was no specific threat from Al-Qaeda as we reported." The apology had been negotiated by the Press Complaints Commission.
8. True or False: As the rising peaks underwent erosion, a layer of marine flysch sediments was deposited in the foreland basin, and the sediments became involved in younger nappes (folds) as the orogeny progressed. Coarse sediments from the continual uplift and erosion were later deposited in foreland areas as molasse.
9. True or False: Two bills sought to put banks under the authority of the province, thereby interfering with the federal government's powers. The third, the Accurate News and Information Bill, purported to a different answer.
10. True or False: This has been generally affirmed throughout the whole Eastern Orthodox Church. The Orthodox critique of Freemasonry agrees with both the Roman Catholic and Protestant versions: "Freemasonry cannot be at all compatible with Christianity as far as it is a secret organisation, acting and teaching in mystery and secret and deifying rationalism.

Long Form Response (20 marks)

Answer each question with a clear and complete explanation.

11. Read the following passage and answer the question: Super Bowl 50 was an American football game to determine the champion of the National Football League (NFL) for the 2015 season. The American Football Conference (AFC) champion Denver Broncos defeated the National Football Conference (NFC) champion Carolina Panthers 24-10 to earn their third Super Bowl title. The game was played on February 7, 2016, at Levi's Stadium in the San Francisco Bay Area at Santa Clara, California. As this was the 50 th Super Bowl, the league emphasized the "golden anniversary" with various gold-themed initiatives, as well as temporarily suspending the tradition of naming each Super Bowl game with Roman numerals (under which the game would have been known as "Super Bowl L"), so that the logo could prominently feature the Arabic numerals 50. Question: Where was Super Bowl 50 held?

12. Read the following passage and answer the question: In some jurisdictions, copyright or the right to enforce it can be contractually assigned to a third party which did not have a role in producing the work. When this outsourced litigator appears to have no intention of taking any copyright infringement cases to trial, but rather only takes them just far enough through the legal system to identify and exact settlements from suspected infringers, critics commonly refer to the party as a "copyright troll." Such practices have had mixed results in the U.S. Question: What do outside lawyers take infringers to court for?

End of Paper