

Multiple Choice (10 marks)

1. All of the following are non-basic jobs in the city EXCEPT
 - (a) city firefighter.
 - (b) social worker.
 - (c) dry cleaner.
 - (d) garment factory worker.
2. Which structure(s) traditionally occupies the center of a historic Asian city?
 - (a) A central market
 - (b) High-density housing
 - (c) A religious building
 - (d) Government office buildings
3. The rate of natural increase of a population is found by subtracting the
 - (a) crude death rate from the crude birth date.
 - (b) crude birth rate from the crude death rate.
 - (c) doubling time from the crude birth rate.
 - (d) fertility rate from the crude death rate.
4. When a new fashion design is introduced globally, the information initially travels through a process known as
 - (a) contagious diffusion
 - (b) relocation diffusion
 - (c) innovative diffusion
 - (d) hierarchical diffusion
5. Which one of the following organizations is NOT a supranational organization?
 - (a) UN
 - (b) NATO
 - (c) ASEAN
 - (d) PLO

True / False (10 marks)

Answer True or False

6. True or False: Canada's third major migration stream did not come from Latin America.
7. True or False: In the third zone of Burgess's concentric zone model, one can find better houses, single-family homes, and higher-rent apartments.
8. True or False: Christianity is experiencing the fastest growth rate among religions in the United States.
9. True or False: Distance decay explains that people are less likely to interact with places that are farther away from them.
10. True or False: Siberia in Russia experiences the greatest temperature extremes due to its location far from the moderating influence of oceans.

Long Form Response (20 marks)

Answer each question with a clear and complete explanation.

11. Discuss the transition from the European Economic Community (EEC) to the European Union (EU), highlighting the significance of this change in the context of European geography and politics.
12. Discuss the major challenges that countries with large and rapidly aging populations face, with a particular focus on the implications for health care systems and services.

End of Paper