

Multiple Choice (10 marks)

1. The Rhine River is an example of which type of boundary?
 - (a) Geometric
 - (b) Artificial
 - (c) Natural
 - (d) Relict
2. College students who live in dormitories near the college cafeteria are more likely to eat in the cafeteria. This is an example of
 - (a) gravity concept.
 - (b) distance decay.
 - (c) complementarity.
 - (d) transferability.
3. Ankara, Turkey and Islamabad, Pakistan are both examples of
 - (a) desert cities.
 - (b) forward-thrust capitals.
 - (c) old colonial capitals.
 - (d) rival cities.
4. Which one of the following is NOT a characteristic of world cities?
 - (a) World cities contain the headquarters of many transnational corporations.
 - (b) World cities are well connected to secondary-level world cities.
 - (c) World cities contain many offices of multinational organizations.
 - (d) World cities are found only in the northern and western hemispheres.
5. Which of the following world regions is NOT considered one of the world's most densely populated regions?
 - (a) South Asia
 - (b) Europe
 - (c) South America
 - (d) Northeast United States

True / False (10 marks)

Answer True or False

6. True or False: Languages have spread significantly through trade and conquest throughout history.
7. True or False: Hasidic Judaism is not an example of syncretism as it maintains distinct Jewish traditions without blending with other cultures.
8. True or False: Thomas Malthus failed to recognize that technology can increase the Earth's carrying capacity for human populations.
9. True or False: Finland has a significant population of Basque speakers, especially in its northern regions.
10. True or False: Gerrymandering is the practice of redrawing voting district boundaries to benefit a particular political party.

Long Form Response (20 marks)

Answer each question with a clear and complete explanation.

11. Discuss the factors that led to the establishment of the first effective settlements in the eastern United States and analyze the contributions of various cultural groups involved.
12. Discuss how the end of the Cold War influenced geopolitical stability in Eastern Europe and contributed to the emergence of ethnic conflicts in the region.

End of Paper