

Multiple Choice (10 marks)

1. Which crop began the Third Agricultural Revolution?
 - (a) Rice
 - (b) Wheat
 - (c) Barley
 - (d) Millet
2. Opponents of genetically modified organisms (GMOs) in food are afraid that the GMOs
 - (a) will hinder global trade.
 - (b) make plants more resistant to disease.
 - (c) may cause irreversible changes in humans.
 - (d) make plants more resistant to drought.
3. Which of the following religions developed first?
 - (a) Buddhism
 - (b) Christianity
 - (c) Islam
 - (d) Hinduism
4. Which one of the following statements does NOT correctly describe the Green Revolution?
 - (a) It changed centuries-old methods of farming.
 - (b) It was an attempt to feed a growing world population.
 - (c) It centered on increased rice, wheat, and maize yields.
 - (d) It greatly improved crop yields in sub-Saharan Africa.
5. Which pair of religions are both universalizing religions?
 - (a) Islam and Judaism
 - (b) Judaism and Buddhism
 - (c) Hinduism and Buddhism
 - (d) Christianity and Buddhism

True / False (10 marks)

Answer True or False

6. True or False: Higher-paying jobs elsewhere are considered push factors that lead individuals to leave their current locations.
7. True or False: Hindi is not a creole language; it is an Indo-Aryan language primarily spoken in India.
8. True or False: Fishing is the most widespread primary economic activity globally, supporting economies in coastal regions.
9. True or False: A megalopolis is defined as a city that is significantly smaller than the largest city in a country.
10. True or False: Urbanization is the process of transforming rural areas into urban centers, often resulting in the decline of inner-city neighborhoods.

Long Form Response (20 marks)

Answer each question with a clear and complete explanation.

11. Discuss the concept of circular migration and analyze how it applies to farm workers from other countries. What factors influence this type of migration, and what are its implications?
12. Discuss the significance of isobar maps in geography, focusing on how they represent atmospheric pressure and their impact on weather patterns and forecasting.

End of Paper