

Multiple Choice (10 marks)

1. Which zone contains low-income slums, ethnic ghettos, and general deterioration in Burgess's concentric zone model of urban form?
 - (a) First
 - (b) Second
 - (c) Third
 - (d) Fourth
2. Spanish colonial architecture, uneven economic development, and rural-to-urban migration flows are most commonly found in which of the following?
 - (a) Southeast Asia
 - (b) Sub-Saharan Africa
 - (c) North America
 - (d) Latin America
3. Which of the following items is NOT a challenge to the state?
 - (a) Transnational corporations
 - (b) EU
 - (c) World Trade Organization
 - (d) Good transportation network
4. Which type of city model contains a distinct residential spine proceeding outward from center city along the main boulevard?
 - (a) European
 - (b) Muslim
 - (c) Sub-Saharan African
 - (d) Latin American
5. Which of the following countries does NOT have a well-known example of a relict boundary?
 - (a) Vietnam
 - (b) United Kingdom
 - (c) Germany
 - (d) Bolivia

True / False (10 marks)

Answer True or False

6. True or False: Paris, France, is the capital city located outside the central core area of the country.
7. True or False: The European Union has established a common European language that is used for all official communications.
8. True or False: An immigrant learning English in the United States is an example of structural assimilation, where cultural identities merge completely.
9. True or False: A suburb is a large node of office and commercial land use outside the central city with more jobs than residents.
10. True or False: Centripetal forces are the elements that unify and strengthen a country, promoting national cohesion and stability.

Long Form Response (20 marks)

Answer each question with a clear and complete explanation.

11. Discuss how primary economic activities are influenced by the physical environment, providing specific examples to illustrate this relationship.
12. Discuss how the United Nations engages in interventionism during global conflicts, and analyze its impact on international relations and conflict resolution.

End of Paper