

Multiple Choice (10 marks)

1. Remarriages are
 - (a) More frequent for men than women
 - (b) Illegal in most countries
 - (c) Most common among those who have never been married before
 - (d) Typically more successful
 - (e) Always unsuccessful
2. Presbyopia refers to
 - (a) The point of clearest vision moving randomly from the eye
 - (b) The decline in vision with advanced age
 - (c) The loss of taste as one grows older
 - (d) The point of clearest vision moving farther from the eye
 - (e) The increase in hearing sensitivity as one grows older
3. The loss of a _____ is regarded in the U. S. as the most severe loss and frequently produces guilt in addition to other emotions.
 - (a) Sibling
 - (b) Home
 - (c) Personal possession
 - (d) Spouse
 - (e) Pet
4. In which one of the following circumstances will the prevalence of a disease in the population increase, all else being constant?
 - (a) If the incidence rate of the disease falls.
 - (b) If effective treatment for the disease becomes widely available.
 - (c) If vaccination against the disease becomes more common.
 - (d) If the disease mutates to a less harmful form.
 - (e) If the population's overall health improves.
5. Nature is more important for _____ differences, while nurture has greater influence on _____ differences.
 - (a) structural and psychological; anatomical and social

- (b) structural and anatomical; psychological and social
- (c) social and structural; anatomical and psychological
- (d) psychological and social; structural and anatomical
- (e) psychological and anatomical; structural and social

True / False (10 marks)

Answer True or False

- 6. True or False: Excessive screen time in childhood has been shown to predict cognitive decline in later years.
- 7. True or False: A₁₄₋₁₆ gauge needle is typically used for administering insulin in diabetic patients for precise dosage delivery.
- 8. True or False: Carpal tunnel syndrome can be associated with rheumatoid arthritis, contributing to its development.
- 9. True or False: Using a syringe to remove a blood clot from a catheter can effectively restore its function.
- 10. True or False: Insulin is commonly associated with causing dry mouth as a side effect in diabetic patients.

Long Form Response (20 marks)

Answer each question with a clear and complete explanation.

- 11. Discuss the energy expenditure of various organs in the human body, focusing on skeletal muscle. Analyze why skeletal muscle has the lowest energy expenditure per unit of body mass.
- 12. Discuss the Stability model of social support, analyzing its implications for long-term relationships and overall health outcomes in individuals.

End of Paper