

Multiple Choice (10 marks)

1. Which of the following best describes the human body's defense mechanism against environmental bacteria?
 - (a) Hair in the nose
 - (b) Mucous membranes
 - (c) Osteoblasts
 - (d) Saliva
2. Which of the following teenagers have the highest pregnancy rates?
 - (a) U.S.
 - (b) Canadian
 - (c) Swedish
 - (d) French
3. The total number of people who have some disorder divided by the total number of people gives you the _____ rate.
 - (a) Prevalence
 - (b) Incidence
 - (c) Incipient
 - (d) Diseased
4. You notice that your patient's submandibular lymph nodes are enlarged. You would look for potential infection sites in the
 - (a) hard palate.
 - (b) hard palate and upper lip.
 - (c) hard palate, upper lip and upper central incisor.
 - (d) hard palate, upper lip, upper central incisor and lower first molar.
5. When older adults move to a new state after retirement, which of the following is the more likely destination?
 - (a) Texas
 - (b) California
 - (c) Hawaii
 - (d) Vermont

True / False (10 marks)

Answer True or False

6. True or False: Morning sickness commonly persists throughout the entire duration of pregnancy for many women.
7. True or False: IUD use is linked only to uterine infections and not to pelvic inflammatory disease or tubal infections.
8. True or False: Only the mental foramen can be palpated in a live patient, while the other foramina cannot be felt.
9. True or False: The hypogastric region is located just distal to the sternum in the abdominal anatomy.
10. True or False: Hysterotomy is the method of abortion that is most costly and carries the greatest risk of complications.

Long Form Response (20 marks)

Answer each question with a clear and complete explanation.

11. Discuss the challenges in developing an HIV vaccine, focusing on the economic factors that contribute to the difficulties in vaccine production and accessibility.
12. Discuss the physiological relationship between anxiety and erectile function, specifically addressing how relaxation impacts vasocongestion and overall sexual response.

End of Paper