

Multiple Choice (10 marks)

1. Where are arenaviruses predominately located in the world?
 - (a) SE Asia
 - (b) Russia
 - (c) Africa and S. America
 - (d) N. America
2. BMI is regarded as a better measure of health than weight by itself because BMI is based on weight and
 - (a) Height
 - (b) Bone structure
 - (c) Immune Function
 - (d) Diet and exercise
3. The dementia that results from a long-term deficiency of thiamine is one type of _____ dementia
 - (a) Alzheimer's
 - (b) Korsakoff's
 - (c) Creutzfeldt-Jakob
 - (d) Lewy body
4. Castration in adulthood
 - (a) will produce a high voice because of decreased testosterone production.
 - (b) will produce a high voice because of the pain that accompanies the procedure.
 - (c) will not produce a high voice because the larynx has already grown.
 - (d) will not produce a high voice because castration does not affect testosterone production.
5. The presence of two or more cell lines from different zygotes in a single individual is known as:
 - (a) mosaicism.
 - (b) diploidy.
 - (c) aneuploidy.
 - (d) chimaerism.

True / False (10 marks)

Answer True or False

6. True or False: Sexual intercourse is not a common form of homosexual activity during preadolescence.
7. True or False: Ebbinghaus was known for his longitudinal study on memory retrieval difficulties as people age.
8. True or False: Patients with pernicious anemia are treated with injections of vitamin B-12 to address their deficiency.
9. True or False: Recombination during meiosis occurs in Prophase I, where homologous chromosomes exchange genetic material.
10. True or False: Psychological definitions of sexual behavior do not classify individuals based on their specific sexual preferences or behaviors.

Long Form Response (20 marks)

Answer each question with a clear and complete explanation.

11. Discuss the mechanisms by which the papilloma family of viruses can lead to cancer, focusing on the integration of their genomes into host cellular DNA.
12. Discuss the various health implications of cocaine abuse during pregnancy, including effects on maternal health, fetal development, and potential long-term outcomes for the child.

End of Paper