

Multiple Choice (10 marks)

1. Virtually all of the crops important in the European Neolithic:
  - (a) were domesticated at the same time at communal farms.
  - (b) were domesticated before groups became sedentary.
  - (c) were independently domesticated in Europe
  - (d) were imported from other regions.
2. What were the mastaba?
  - (a) clay tablets that represent the earliest known form of writing in the world
  - (b) mud-brick structures built over elite tombs that were subsequently developed into pyramids
  - (c) irrigation canals that allowed for the production of agricultural surpluses in Egypt
  - (d) the ritual headdress of the religious-political leaders of Mesopotamia
3. On which continent are most of the Venus figurines found?
  - (a) Europe
  - (b) Africa
  - (c) Asia
  - (d) Australia
4. What best characterizes the subsistence strategies of the North American Archaic period?
  - (a) increased reliance on farming
  - (b) decreased reliance on shellfish
  - (c) greater regional differentiation
  - (d) active trading between the North and South
5. How have archaeologists characterized the monuments built by the Olmec?
  - (a) Halafian ritual monuments
  - (b) megalithic chiefdoms
  - (c) surplus food storage centers
  - (d) regal-ritual centers

True / False (10 marks)

Answer True or False

6. True or False: The appearance of decorated stepped platforms around 2650 B.P. indicates early complexity in Mayan societies.
7. True or False: Paleoindians chose the Gault site in Texas for its proximity to a local source of chert for making stone tools.
8. True or False: Uniformitarianism is described as 'the slow agency of existing causes' in geological processes.
9. True or False: Kiva parties are celebrations where wealth is transferred between different tribes in the Southwest United States.
10. True or False: Humans are direct descendants of chimpanzees, sharing a common ancestor with them.

Long Form Response (20 marks)

Answer each question with a clear and complete explanation.

11. Discuss the role of various crops in the subsistence practices of the Hopewell culture, and analyze why maize was not a significant component of their agricultural system.
12. Discuss the four key characteristics of civilization and analyze how each contributes to the development and sustainability of a complex society.

End of Paper