

Multiple Choice

1. Answer: A

Options: A) the need to form alliances with neighboring civilizations for trade and protection; B) the need to develop a calendar system for agricultural planning; C) the need to develop a complex social system that would allow the construction of canals; D) the use of irrigation to produce enough food; E) the creation of a military force for defense and conquest

Note: The development of Mesopotamian civilization was primarily influenced by factors such as agriculture, irrigation, and urbanization, rather than the necessity to form alliances with neighboring civilizations, which became more relevant in later periods.

2. Answer: D

Options: A) created intricate pottery and jewelry.; B) discovered the use of fire.; C) invented the wheel.; D) stored food surpluses in good years for distribution in bad years.; E) established trade routes with distant cultures.

Note: The correct answer highlights that the emergence of Ancestral Pueblo elites was linked to their ability to manage and distribute food surpluses during periods of abundance, thereby establishing a system of resource control and dependence that reinforced their power during times of scarcity.

3. Answer: D

Options: A) geological layers and sediment types.; B) the architectural style and layout of structures on the site.; C) pumice and evidence of pyroclastic surges.; D) the faunal assemblage from a site.; E) an osteological comparative collection from a site.

Note: The faunal assemblage from a site provides crucial evidence regarding the types of animals that were hunted or domesticated by a community, which directly informs researchers about their subsistence practices and dietary habits.

4. Answer: A

Options: A) cranial reduction; B) decreased dentition; C) microcephaly; D) supraorbital cortex; E) encephalization

Note: Cranial reduction in hominids is associated with changes in dietary practices and social structures that likely facilitated the development of larger brain sizes in species like Homo erectus, reflecting an evolutionary adaptation to their environments.

5. Answer: A

Options: A) 17 th century.; B) 14 th century.; C) 18 th century.; D) 21 st century.; E) 5 th century.

Note: The Shang Dynasty established key aspects of Chinese civilization, such as centralized government, writing systems, and religious practices, which influenced subsequent dynasties and continued to shape Chinese culture and governance well into the 17 th century.
