

Multiple Choice (10 marks)

1. After the Bar Kochba revolt, where were the two main centres for Jewish development?
 - (a) Babylonia and Europe
 - (b) Rome and Europe
 - (c) Palestine and France
 - (d) Palestine and Rome
 - (e) Europe and Egypt
2. What can murtis be translated as?
 - (a) Sacrifices
 - (b) Blessings
 - (c) Offerings
 - (d) Prayers
 - (e) Apparitions
3. According to Mill, the value of a particular pleasure depends on
 - (a) its rarity or frequency.
 - (b) societal norms and values.
 - (c) the individual's personal preference.
 - (d) the amount of effort required to obtain it.
 - (e) the potential pain that might accompany it.
4. Baier argues that genuine moral rules:
 - (a) must take into account the interests of all living beings.
 - (b) make take into account the interests of all sentient beings.
 - (c) should primarily focus on preserving the natural environment.
 - (d) must align with societal norms and expectations.
 - (e) are based solely on religious doctrines.
5. According to Reiman, van den Haag's arguments in favor of the death penalty
 - (a) are not based on logical reasoning.
 - (b) are flawed due to lack of empirical evidence.
 - (c) contradict the principles of human rights.
 - (d) follow common sense.
 - (e) are based on biased principles.

True / False (10 marks)

Answer True or False

6. True or False: Anscombe argues that an adequate moral psychology must include a detailed understanding of societal norms and expectations.
7. True or False: Wolf argues that a moral saint must engage in various leisure activities, including gourmet cooking and sports.
8. True or False: Abolishing the death penalty suggests that all crimes can be adequately addressed without any form of punishment.
9. True or False: In a hypothetical syllogism, if the minor premise affirms the antecedent, the conclusion must affirm the consequent.
10. True or False: Hume describes reason as the primary catalyst for both human behaviors and emotional reactions.

Long Form Response (20 marks)

Answer each question with a clear and complete explanation.

11. Discuss the externalist approach to meaning in philosophy, focusing on its existentialist perspective. Analyze how this standpoint influences the understanding of meaning and existence.
12. Critically examine Pence's argument regarding the ethical implications of somatic cell nuclear transfer (SCNT) and discuss why he believes the potential for genetic abnormalities is not a valid objection.

End of Paper