

Multiple Choice (10 marks)

1. Epicurus conceives of death as:
 - (a) the greatest harm that one can suffer.
 - (b) an illusion that does not truly exist.
 - (c) the transformation into a higher being.
 - (d) one component of the continuous cycle of rebirth.
 - (e) a state of eternal suffering.
2. Which of the following is a value that Arthur believes is more fundamental than rights and desert?
 - (a) justice
 - (b) fairness
 - (c) respect for other persons
 - (d) all of the above
3. "To be valid, the minor premise must either agree with the antecedent, or disagree with the consequent" is a requirement for
 - (a) a categorical enthymeme
 - (b) a conditional syllogism
 - (c) a disjunctive inference
 - (d) a distributive syllogism
 - (e) a hypothetical syllogism
4. Singer claims that famine relief organizations direct our aid to distant refugees:
 - (a) with a focus on quantity over quality, leading to possible misallocation.
 - (b) very inefficiently, and are therefore not worth donating to.
 - (c) with a high level of bureaucracy and corruption, therefore not recommended.
 - (d) more effectively than we could get it to our close neighbors.
 - (e) extremely efficiently, making them the only viable option for aid distribution.
5. Arguing that what is true of an entire object is also true of each part of that object is the fallacy of
 - (a) appeal to ignorance
 - (b) straw man

- (c) bandwagon
- (d) division
- (e) false cause

True / False (10 marks)

Answer True or False

6. True or False: According to Kant, the moral worth of an action is determined by the maxim that the agent acts upon.
7. True or False: Singer contends that the imposition of Western educational systems benefits poorer nations by enhancing their cultural identity.
8. True or False: The principle of military necessity is a component of moral nihilism within just war theory.
9. True or False: A sarcastic response is a clear demonstration of the argumentum ad hominem fallacy, which directly attacks the opponent's character.
10. True or False: According to Hume, reason should serve to direct and guide our passions rather than operate independently of them.

Long Form Response (20 marks)

Answer each question with a clear and complete explanation.

11. Construct a complete truth table for the argument $(G \supset H) \cdot \sim I, \sim G \supset (\sim H \vee I) / G$. Analyze the validity of the argument and discuss potential counterexamples if it is invalid.
12. Discuss Nathanson's argument regarding the relationship between the act of murder and the forfeiture of the right to privacy. What philosophical implications arise from this perspective?

End of Paper