

Multiple Choice (10 marks)

1. When someone changes the meaning of a word or phrase from one part of the argument to another that person may have committed which of the following fallacies?
 - (a) Hypostatization
 - (b) Appeal to authority
 - (c) Red herring fallacy
 - (d) False cause fallacy
 - (e) Straw man fallacy
2. Singer claims that his argument upsets the traditional distinction between:
 - (a) fairness and bias.
 - (b) ethical and unethical.
 - (c) duty and charity.
 - (d) positive and negative rights.
 - (e) freedom and restriction.
3. The universe, like a watch, must have a maker.
 - (a) Fallacy of Accident
 - (b) Questionable Analogy
 - (c) Questionable Cause
 - (d) Fallacy of Composition
4. In Butler's view, acting virtuously consists of acting in accordance with:
 - (a) all of our inward principles.
 - (b) our highest inward principle.
 - (c) the principles dictated by law.
 - (d) the commands of God.
 - (e) the principles of our elders.
5. In Singer's view, the question of when it's wrong to painlessly kill an animal is one
 - (a) that is irrelevant as it is never wrong to painlessly kill an animal.
 - (b) that is only wrong if the animal is a pet.
 - (c) that is entirely dependent on the species of the animal.
 - (d) that is dependent on the cultural norms of a society.
 - (e) that is ethically unimportant.

True / False (10 marks)

Answer True or False

6. True or False: Mill defines 'utility' as the advantage or benefit derived by the user from an action or object.
7. True or False: Thomas Nagel categorizes moral considerations in 'War and Massacre' as rights-based and duty-based.
8. True or False: All successful interrogations are predicated on the use of torture as a necessary technique.
9. True or False: Incontinence in Aristotle's philosophy occurs when one knows their actions are right but fails to act on that knowledge.
10. True or False: Aquinas does not consider 'Man is a rational being' to be a self-evident proposition.

Long Form Response (20 marks)

Answer each question with a clear and complete explanation.

11. Discuss Mill's response to the criticism that utilitarianism is a doctrine worthy of swine, focusing on how he differentiates pleasures by their quality and cost.
12. In what ways does the Egyptian composition Ludul Bel Nemequi illustrate Marduk's character as indifferent and detached, and what implications does this portrayal have for understanding divine representation in ancient philosophy?

End of Paper