

Multiple Choice (10 marks)

1. Hobbes describes felicity as:
 - (a) the absence of desire.
 - (b) a state of constant dissatisfaction.
 - (c) a state of constant change.
 - (d) the absence of progress.
 - (e) a state of satisfaction with one's current state.
2. Ashford's article is meant to address a particular paralysis in the face of
 - (a) the daunting task of solving worldwide economic imbalance.
 - (b) the impossibility of meeting everyone's basic needs.
 - (c) having to give up so much of our own wealth in light of Singer's arguments.
 - (d) having to choose between addressing immediate harm and addressing structural injustice.
 - (e) reconciling conflict moral theories.
3. Craig says an actually infinite number of things _____.
 - (a) cannot exist
 - (b) can be physically observed
 - (c) can be counted one by one
 - (d) is a concept beyond human comprehension
 - (e) only exists in mathematics
4. Naturalists who concentrated on natural elements and processes are associated with which of the following?
 - (a) Mengzi
 - (b) Zoroastrianism
 - (c) Zen Buddhism
 - (d) Shintoism
 - (e) Vedic Philosophy
5. Lukianoff and Haidt argue that American colleges and universities now encourage
 - (a) emotional reasoning.
 - (b) critical reasoning.
 - (c) reflective reasoning.
 - (d) all of the above.

True / False (10 marks)

Answer True or False

6. True or False: Sinnott-Armstrong primarily analyzes the ethical responsibilities of environmental entities.
7. True or False: Baxter would argue that the policy is morally unproblematic as it does not harm human beings.
8. True or False: Singer argues that the conclusions in 'All Animals Are Equal' are solely based on the principle of maximizing happiness for all sentient beings.
9. True or False: Gauthier claims that moral agreements that benefit one party over another promote a sense of community and unity.
10. True or False: According to the Ideal Moral Code theory, one is obligated to follow ideal moral rules in a world governed by majority vote.

Long Form Response (20 marks)

Answer each question with a clear and complete explanation.

11. Analyze the logical structure of the statement: "Either England's importing beef is a sufficient condition for France's subsidizing agriculture, or China doesn't promote human rights when and only when South Africa supplies diamonds." Discuss how you would symbolize this statement in propositional logic, justifying your choices.
12. Discuss the concept of moral cosmopolitanism, analyzing the obligations it imposes on individuals to assist those in need and promote basic human rights.

End of Paper