

Multiple Choice (10 marks)

1. An example of a morally impossible rule would be:
 - (a) lie whenever doing so is necessary to prevent a catastrophe.
 - (b) always do whatever brings about the greatest happiness.
 - (c) always assert what you don't think to be the case.
 - (d) all of the above.
2. Where did people believe in the goddess known as Holy Mother of Mount Fairy Peach?
 - (a) China
 - (b) Silla
 - (c) Goguryeo
 - (d) Joseon
3. Kant claims that the moral law is given to each person by:
 - (a) one's own will.
 - (b) one's own emotions.
 - (c) God.
 - (d) Nature.
 - (e) the universe.
4. According to Singer, international corporations that deal with corrupt dictators are akin to
 - (a) accomplices in the dictator's crimes.
 - (b) people who knowingly buy stolen goods.
 - (c) thieves who steal from the poor.
 - (d) merchants who sell harmful products.
 - (e) war profiteers exploiting conflict.
5. Feinberg claims that the best way to pursue happiness is to:
 - (a) strive for success.
 - (b) pursue knowledge.
 - (c) pursue happiness.
 - (d) focus on material wealth.
 - (e) none of the above.

True / False (10 marks)

Answer True or False

6. True or False: The laudatory personality fallacy occurs when one dismisses bad actions due to a person's positive traits.
7. True or False: Velleman argues that a court of law should be responsible for deciding if a patient receives euthanasia.
8. True or False: Anscombe asserts that the notion of moral obligation is fundamentally derived from the concept of preference.
9. True or False: The fallacy of reprehensible personality is a subtype of the fallacy of accident, which involves misapplying general rules to specific cases.
10. True or False: Rabbinical commentaries produced after the Mishnah are known as Midrash.

Long Form Response (20 marks)

Answer each question with a clear and complete explanation.

11. Discuss how Pence employs Kant's humanity formulation in his article "Will Cloning Harm People?" to argue that cloning is morally acceptable. What implications does this have for bioethics?
12. Discuss the fallacy of appeal to pride, providing examples and analyzing how it undermines rational discourse by focusing on personal characteristics rather than the validity of claims.

End of Paper