

Multiple Choice (10 marks)

1. What was the significance of the Gulf of Tonkin resolution?
 - (a) It allowed the US to intensify its involvement in Vietnam
 - (b) It illustrated the influence of public opinion on US foreign policy
 - (c) It enhanced Congressional control over the Vietnam War
 - (d) It curtailed US involvement in Vietnam
2. The Strategic Arms Reduction Treaty was the first accord
 - (a) on nuclear weapons signed between the United States and the Soviet Union.
 - (b) cutting conventional arms in Europe.
 - (c) to be rejected by the U.S. Senate.
 - (d) mandating the elimination of many long-range nuclear missiles.
3. Which factor is cited by Revisionists as the primary cause of the Cold War?
 - (a) The threat posed by the Soviet Union
 - (b) Domestic concerns of the US
 - (c) Soviet ideology
 - (d) None of the above
4. Within the United Nations, real power is located in
 - (a) the Security Council.
 - (b) the Chamber of Deputies.
 - (c) the Council of Ministers.
 - (d) the Secretariat.
5. What did Charles Krauthammer mean by a 'unipolar moment' when describing the post-Cold War system?
 - (a) The chance for the United States to share power with other countries in the world
 - (b) An opportunity to use the collapse of the Soviet Union to extend US power
 - (c) An international system that didn't face any threats
 - (d) The never-ending domination of the United States

True / False (10 marks)

Answer True or False

6. True or False: It is estimated that fewer than 20 million people are living with HIV/AIDS globally.
7. True or False: In American politics, the power to accord official recognition to other countries is vested in the president.
8. True or False: Americans believed they could establish an 'empire of liberty' that would promote freedom and democracy after 1776.
9. True or False: According to Realists, the onset of the Cold War was primarily due to a power vacuum and the expansionist nature of the Soviet Union.
10. True or False: Common criticisms of the human security concept include its perceived neo-colonial implications, promotion of global capitalism, and being overly broad.

Long Form Response (20 marks)

Answer each question with a clear and complete explanation.

11. Discuss the various challenges to liberalism that emerged in the Western response to the Arab Spring, analyzing their implications for international politics and democratic movements.
12. Discuss the factors that prompted Britain to impose new taxes on its American colonies, with a particular focus on the financial implications of the war with France.

End of Paper