

Multiple Choice (10 marks)

1. Why is NSC 68 seen as a turning point in US Cold War Foreign policy?
 - (a) It indicated the primacy of economic containment
 - (b) It indicated a desire to engage with the Soviet Union
 - (c) It indicated a shift towards military containment
 - (d) It dispensed with the idea of containment
2. Which of these is not a component of the 'American Creed'?
 - (a) Liberty
 - (b) Equality
 - (c) Autocracy
 - (d) Individualism
3. How did the Cold War context shape US perceptions of the Third World?
 - (a) The US ignored the Third World
 - (b) Local developments were viewed through a geopolitical lens
 - (c) The US unreservedly supported decolonization
 - (d) None of the above
4. Which of the following concepts does NOT form part of the technical discourse on cyber- security?
 - (a) Business networks
 - (b) Computer experts
 - (c) Anti-virus industry
 - (d) Computer networks
5. What, according to Systemic theories, is the primary determinant of a state's foreign policy?
 - (a) The character of a state's leader
 - (b) The distribution of power in the international system
 - (c) The distribution of power within a state's governmental system
 - (d) A state's political ideology

True / False (10 marks)

Answer True or False

6. True or False: Kennedy claimed that the rise of Japan would lead to the immediate decline of all Western economies, including the United States.
7. True or False: International institutions primarily focus on economic cooperation and do not address issues like war or anarchy.
8. True or False: Intergovernmental organizations effectively constrain abusive leaders through comprehensive monitoring and enforcement mechanisms.
9. True or False: Critical Information Infrastructures are considered the primary referent object in contemporary cyber-security discussions.
10. True or False: The George W. Bush administration criticized international organizations instead of seeking to strengthen them.

Long Form Response (20 marks)

Answer each question with a clear and complete explanation.

11. Discuss the various ways in which the security dimensions of infectious disease should be integrated into the national security framework, considering political, economic, and social factors.
12. How will the evolving global security environment influence the nature of conflicts in the twenty-first century, particularly concerning human migration, resource scarcity, and power dynamics?

End of Paper