

Multiple Choice (10 marks)

1. The trade-off between defense and social spending is often referred to as a choice between
 - (a) bread and butter.
 - (b) war and peace.
 - (c) guns and butter.
 - (d) bombs and books.
2. Which of the following considers it immoral to use force abroad to do good things (such human rights protection, democracy, etc)?
 - (a) Realism
 - (b) Idealism
 - (c) Liberalism
 - (d) None of the above
3. The president's principal civilian adviser on the military is the
 - (a) national security adviser.
 - (b) director of the CIA.
 - (c) secretary of defense.
 - (d) secretary of state.
4. What is 'malware'?
 - (a) A virus or worm
 - (b) A Trojan horse
 - (c) A hacker tool
 - (d) A corrupted program
5. What was meant by the term 'New World Order'?
 - (a) A new democratic internationalism led by the United States
 - (b) A new balance of power between the US and China
 - (c) A new global economic framework
 - (d) A new era of globalization

True / False (10 marks)

Answer True or False

6. True or False: Rosenau argues that only the external environment is significant in shaping the foreign policy behavior of the United States.
7. True or False: Lincoln opposed the southward expansion of the US because it would involve compromising his stance against slavery.
8. True or False: Richard Nixon was the first American president to visit communist China in 1972, marking a significant shift in U.S.-China relations.
9. True or False: The 2008 financial crisis led to an increase in global confidence in the US dollar as a stable currency.
10. True or False: In a multipolar system, there is typically only one major power that dominates international relations.

Long Form Response (20 marks)

Answer each question with a clear and complete explanation.

11. Discuss the Marxist perspective on U.S. foreign policy, focusing on the role of economic interests and the search for new markets. Analyze its implications for global relations.
12. Discuss the relationship between culture and social constructivism, focusing on how cultural practices shape state perceptions of security and influence identity formation.

End of Paper