

Multiple Choice (10 marks)

1. Within Critical Security Studies, what is the referent object of security?
 - (a) There is no specific referent point.
 - (b) The state and state apparatus.
 - (c) The environment.
 - (d) The people and their collectives.
2. What fact impinged upon America's 'neutral' stance towards the belligerent in World War I between 1915 and 1917?
 - (a) US banks funded the allies much more than Germany and Austria-Hungary
 - (b) US banks funded Germany and Austria-Hungary much more than the allies
 - (c) Wilson secretly favoured the German position
 - (d) None of the above
3. In which of these wars did the overwhelming technological superiority of one side lead to rapid defeat of its enemy?
 - (a) Vietnam War.
 - (b) Second World War.
 - (c) First World War.
 - (d) 1991 Gulf War.
4. In what way did the George W Bush administration change the direction of US foreign policy?
 - (a) It criticized international organizations, rather than trying to strengthen them
 - (b) It expanded NATO to include former Soviet states
 - (c) It focused on a more personal style of leadership
 - (d) It increased international support for the United States
5. What led Britain to impose new taxes on their American colonies?
 - (a) To increase the wealth of King George III
 - (b) The growing costs of war with France
 - (c) Anger at America's growing prosperity
 - (d) Pressure from rich merchants

True / False (10 marks)

Answer True or False

6. True or False: American exceptionalism views world government as the most effective solution for global governance challenges.
7. True or False: The National Security Council is the government body responsible for coordinating American foreign and military policy.
8. True or False: The North Atlantic Treaty Organization (NATO) is considered the most influential international organization for economic development.
9. True or False: The United Nations Security Council consists of 5 permanent members with veto power and 10 rotating members without veto power.
10. True or False: NSC-68 expanded U.S. strategy by globalizing and militarizing containment and advocating for the hydrogen bomb's development.

Long Form Response (20 marks)

Answer each question with a clear and complete explanation.

11. Discuss the various factors that may compel a state to join an alliance like NATO, analyzing the political, economic, and security motivations behind such a decision.
12. Discuss the significance of the 1994 Human Development Report in shaping contemporary political science discourse on human development and its impact on policy-making.

End of Paper