

Multiple Choice (10 marks)

1. Why do realists tend to object to the influence of exceptionalism on American foreign policy?
 - (a) It leads to a diminished focus on collective security
 - (b) It diminishes the prospects for world government
 - (c) It enhances the prospects for world government
 - (d) It leads to a diminished focus on security, power and interest
2. In American government, the power to declare war rests with
 - (a) the president of the United States.
 - (b) the secretary of defense.
 - (c) the chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff.
 - (d) Congress.
3. What did Paul Kennedy argue in his book The Rise and Fall of the Great Powers?
 - (a) All of the world's leading economies were declining due to low growth and inflation
 - (b) The United States could no longer remain a superpower and was in decline
 - (c) The soft power of the United States would allow it to avoid decline
 - (d) The rise of Japan had been exaggerated
4. The Strategic Arms Reduction Treaty was the first accord
 - (a) on nuclear weapons signed between the United States and the Soviet Union.
 - (b) cutting conventional arms in Europe.
 - (c) to be rejected by the U.S. Senate.
 - (d) mandating the elimination of many long-range nuclear missiles.
5. Why do Liberal Internationalists argue that international institutions are important to US grand strategy?
 - (a) They allow the US to withdraw from the international arena
 - (b) They serve American interests
 - (c) The US is incapable of acting alone
 - (d) None of the above

True / False (10 marks)

Answer True or False

6. True or False: The General Agreement on Tariffs and Trade (GATT) was established at Bretton Woods in 1994 to stabilize the global economy.
7. True or False: Diplomacy is not classified as an economic tool of security policy, which typically includes sanctions, trade, and aid.
8. True or False: Rosenau emphasizes that only the President's personality is crucial in determining the U.S. foreign policy behavior.
9. True or False: Material, epistemic, and structural violence are recognized as the only forms of violence in postcolonial theory.
10. True or False: China is considered a state actor and not a nonstate actor that poses a threat to the United States.

Long Form Response (20 marks)

Answer each question with a clear and complete explanation.

11. Discuss the reasons why some governmental regimes hesitate to fully embrace liberalism, and critically analyze why the fear of recurring cooperation is not a valid justification for this reluctance.
12. How has the geopolitical landscape since the end of the Cold War influenced Western powers' strategies in coercive diplomacy, particularly regarding weak and failing states?

End of Paper