

Multiple Choice (10 marks)

1. Which of the following considers it immoral to use force abroad to do good things (such human rights protection, democracy, etc)?
 - (a) Realism
 - (b) Idealism
 - (c) Liberalism
 - (d) None of the above
2. Peace, commerce, and honest friendship with all nations, entangling alliances with none'. Identify the speaker.
 - (a) James Madison
 - (b) Abraham Lincoln
 - (c) Woodrow Wilson
 - (d) Thomas Jefferson
3. The importance of oil in shaping U.S. foreign policy helps to highlight
 - (a) the importance of military superiority.
 - (b) how the importance of oil is often overexaggerated.
 - (c) the increasing importance of economic instruments of foreign policy.
 - (d) the need to drill for domestic sources.
4. What was meant by the term 'New World Order'?
 - (a) A new democratic internationalism led by the United States
 - (b) A new balance of power between the US and China
 - (c) A new global economic framework
 - (d) A new era of globalization
5. What was the significance of the Gulf of Tonkin resolution?
 - (a) It allowed the US to intensify its involvement in Vietnam
 - (b) It illustrated the influence of public opinion on US foreign policy
 - (c) It enhanced Congressional control over the Vietnam War
 - (d) It curtailed US involvement in Vietnam

True / False (10 marks)

Answer True or False

6. True or False: The argument for American unilateralism is primarily based on the success of multilateralism in achieving global cooperation.
7. True or False: The grand strategy of 'primacy' focuses on ensuring US parity with other global powers rather than dominance.
8. True or False: The director of the CIA serves as the president's principal civilian adviser on military issues.
9. True or False: Bureaucratic politics emphasizes the importance of identifying and responding to nuclear attacks, including who controls the weapons.
10. True or False: Post-1865, US expansion increasingly prioritized market access over territorial acquisition.

Long Form Response (20 marks)

Answer each question with a clear and complete explanation.

11. Discuss how NSC 68 represented a pivotal shift in U.S. Cold War foreign policy, particularly in relation to military containment strategies. Analyze its implications for international relations.
12. Discuss the various challenges to liberalism presented by the Western response to the Arab Spring, analyzing the implications for international relations and democratic governance.

End of Paper