

Multiple Choice (10 marks)

1. Inefficient balancing or buckpassing by states can lead to what?
 - (a) An increase in non-traditional security threats.
 - (b) A more cooperative international system.
 - (c) A more competitive international system.
 - (d) An increase in inter-state alliances and military restraint.
2. What did Charles Krauthammer mean by a 'unipolar moment' when describing the post-Cold War system?
 - (a) The chance for the United States to share power with other countries in the world
 - (b) An opportunity to use the collapse of the Soviet Union to extend US power
 - (c) An international system that didn't face any threats
 - (d) The never-ending domination of the United States
3. Why did Lincoln oppose the southward expansion of the US?
 - (a) It would have drained the US economically
 - (b) It would have involved compromising opposition to slavery
 - (c) It would have increased immigration to the US
 - (d) None of the above
4. Which of the following statements is the odd one out?
 - (a) Societal groups have a right to survive.
 - (b) Societal groups have their own reality.
 - (c) Societal groups are constituted by social interaction.
 - (d) Societal groups are multiple-identity units.
5. What was meant by the term 'American multiplication table'?
 - (a) Increase in the US population
 - (b) Increase in US finances
 - (c) Increase in US military capability
 - (d) Increase in US international influence

True / False (10 marks)

Answer True or False

6. True or False: International institutions have been designed to address issues such as war, anarchy, and collective action and coordination problems.
7. True or False: The Monroe Doctrine established that European nations should refrain from interfering in the affairs of Latin American countries.
8. True or False: Realists argue that the fundamental difference between the international system and the domestic system is the presence of anarchy in international relations.
9. True or False: George H.W. Bush allowed Saddam Hussein to remain in power due to the limited UN mandate and concerns about a protracted conflict.
10. True or False: International trade typically results in equal benefits for all participating countries, regardless of their economic structure.

Long Form Response (20 marks)

Answer each question with a clear and complete explanation.

11. Discuss how threats to state security can centralize political and economic power, and analyze the implications of this centralization on international development.
12. Discuss the main organizational change proposed by the 9/11 Commission regarding the U.S. intelligence community and analyze its implications for national security and intelligence coordination.

End of Paper