

Multiple Choice (10 marks)

1. Which of the following represent a move away from traditional interpretations of security studies?
 - (a) Critical questioning.
 - (b) Realist logic.
 - (c) State-centric security analysis.
 - (d) All of these options.
2. Which of the following are possible constraints on US foreign policy decision making?
 - (a) Foreign policies of other states
 - (b) International law
 - (c) Intergovernmental organizations
 - (d) All of the above
3. Which of the following is the largest source of "automatic spending" for the federal government?
 - (a) Salaries to employees of the U.S. Post Office
 - (b) Interest payments made to U.S. bondholders
 - (c) Entitlement programs
 - (d) National defense
4. A Supreme Court that demonstrates a willingness to change public policy and alter judicial precedent is said to be engaging in
 - (a) judicial activism
 - (b) due process
 - (c) judicial restraint
 - (d) ex post facto lawmaking
5. How did NSC-68 change U.S. strategy?
 - (a) It globalized containment.
 - (b) It militarized containment.
 - (c) It called for the development of the hydrogen bomb.
 - (d) All of the above

True / False (10 marks)

Answer True or False

6. True or False: Independent regulatory agencies are often led by a group of commissioners from both major political parties to minimize political influence.
7. True or False: Socio-Economic accounts of US Cold War foreign policy emphasize class and economic interests as key factors influencing decisions.
8. True or False: In the United States, low voter turnout does not result in the imposition of fines on non-voters.
9. True or False: The concept implies that diplomacy is the most effective method for resolving conflicts between political parties.
10. True or False: Human society is not a constant and unchanging phenomenon, as it is influenced by historical and social dynamics.

Long Form Response (20 marks)

Answer each question with a clear and complete explanation.

11. Discuss the various ways in which weak states may face external challenges, analyzing the implications of these challenges on their stability and governance.
12. Discuss the historical and demographic factors that have influenced the political alignment of various groups within the Democratic Party, focusing on the liberalism of White Southerners.

End of Paper