

Multiple Choice (10 marks)

1. A member of which of the following demographic groups is most likely to support a Republican presidential candidate?
 - (a) Married white male
 - (b) Unmarried white female
 - (c) African American, male or female
 - (d) Youths under the age of 25, male or female
2. Which of the following is a legitimate threat to societal security?
 - (a) Political policies designed to alter demographic characteristics of a state.
 - (b) All of these options.
 - (c) Legislation that criminalises certain cultural behaviours or practice.
 - (d) The use of military force to conduct ethnic-cleansing through displacement and killing.
3. Which of the following is an example of "horse-race journalism"?
 - (a) A news story focuses on a politician's scandals rather than achievements.
 - (b) A television news anchor reports an event before the station's rivals.
 - (c) A reporter announces which candidate leads in a public opinion poll.
 - (d) A newspaper editor prints stories about long-term political developments.
4. Which of the following has the Supreme Court held about the death penalty?
 - (a) The death penalty may only be imposed upon citizens.
 - (b) Under some circumstances, the death penalty may not violate the Eighth Amendment.
 - (c) Under some circumstances, the death penalty may violate the Third Amendment.
 - (d) States may execute any adult regardless of intellectual disability.
5. Which of the following points supports the argument for American unilateralism?
 - (a) Benevolent hegemony
 - (b) Ineffectiveness of multilateralism
 - (c) American power
 - (d) All of the above

True / False (10 marks)

Answer True or False

6. True or False: A motion for cloture is used in the Senate to end a filibuster and force a vote on a bill.
7. True or False: The principle of checks and balances is a core feature of the Constitution, ensuring no single branch of government becomes too powerful.
8. True or False: The president of the United States has the sole power to declare war without congressional approval.
9. True or False: In an open primary, voters registered as independents may not participate in the primary elections of any party.
10. True or False: The role of oil in U.S. foreign policy is often overstated, with military superiority being the primary focus of strategic decisions.

Long Form Response (20 marks)

Answer each question with a clear and complete explanation.

11. Discuss the role of domestic concerns in the United States as cited by Revisionists as the primary cause of the Cold War, and analyze its implications on international relations during that era.
12. Discuss the significance of post-structuralist critiques in security studies, highlighting their contributions to understanding power dynamics, identity, and the construction of security narratives.

End of Paper