

Multiple Choice (10 marks)

1. When an appeal is made to the Supreme Court, the court usually
  - (a) refuses to hear the appeal
  - (b) declares a mistrial
  - (c) orders the lower court to retry the case
  - (d) rules in favor of the defendant
2. Federalism is a principle of government in which
  - (a) power is shared between the national government and state governments
  - (b) states have equal representation in the national government
  - (c) individual liberties are guaranteed by a Bill of Rights
  - (d) legislative, executive, and judicial powers are separated
3. Which of the following is true of most third parties in U.S. history?
  - (a) They arose and succeeded during times of prosperity.
  - (b) They were created to protest wars.
  - (c) At some point they won a majority of seats in Congress.
  - (d) They flourished during periods of widespread dissatisfaction.
4. What is direct diplomacy?
  - (a) Members of Congress negotiating directly with foreign governments
  - (b) Face-to-face meetings between state leaders
  - (c) The president consulting Congress on foreign policy issues
  - (d) Bilateral talks that do not involve a third-party negotiator
5. Which is not a nonstate actor that poses a threat to the United States?
  - (a) Terrorists
  - (b) Organized crime
  - (c) Drug traffickers
  - (d) China

True / False (10 marks)

Answer True or False

6. True or False: The concept of 'realism' was coined by John Foster Dulles to describe U.S.-Soviet relations during the Cold War.
7. True or False: An unfunded mandate occurs when the federal government requires state and local governments to fulfill duties without providing funding.
8. True or False: States have moved their presidential primary dates earlier to reduce the overall cost of conducting elections.
9. True or False: Nations are not solely defined by the boundaries and borders of the state, as they can encompass various cultural and ethnic identities.
10. True or False: The Supreme Court case Regents of University of California v. Bakke addressed the rights of students to protest on a publicly funded campus.

Long Form Response (20 marks)

Answer each question with a clear and complete explanation.

11. Discuss the various challenges that international institutions have been established to address, and analyze their effectiveness in fostering global cooperation and stability.
12. Discuss the importance of acknowledging the limits of absolute security in cyber defense, and analyze how resilient IT systems and international cooperation can enhance security.

End of Paper