

Multiple Choice (10 marks)

1. The exclusionary rule was established to
 - (a) create "separate but equal" facilities to facilitate racial segregation
 - (b) allow private organizations to restrict their memberships
 - (c) limit the government's ability to use illegally obtained evidence
 - (d) deny control of interstate commerce to the states
2. A writ of certiorari from the Supreme Court indicates that the Court
 - (a) will review a lower court decision
 - (b) has rendered a decision on a case
 - (c) has decided not to hear an appeal
 - (d) will recess until the end of the calendar year
3. The legal principle that instructs judges to follow established precedent when deciding cases is commonly referred to as
 - (a) certiorari
 - (b) de jure
 - (c) ex post facto
 - (d) stare decisis
4. Which of the following concepts does NOT form part of the technical discourse on cyber- security?
 - (a) Business networks
 - (b) Computer experts
 - (c) Anti-virus industry
 - (d) Computer networks
5. Filibusters are less likely to occur in the House of Representatives than in the Senate because
 - (a) Senate decorum forbids one senator from attempting to stop another's speech
 - (b) the House meets for substantially fewer hours per day than does the Senate
 - (c) Senate sessions, unlike House sessions, are open to the public
 - (d) debate in the House is in most instances strictly regulated by the rules

True / False (10 marks)

Answer True or False

6. True or False: Federal programs are typically administered directly by Congress through its local offices and elected representatives.
7. True or False: Identity is essential to societal security as it fosters a sense of belonging and cohesion within a community.
8. True or False: A multipolar system can exist with only one major power dominating international relations.
9. True or False: Most entitlement programs were established through constitutional amendments, making them hard to alter.
10. True or False: Vectors of economic incentives differ from institutional and resource constraints, as they focus on the motivation behind economic decisions.

Long Form Response (20 marks)

Answer each question with a clear and complete explanation.

11. Discuss the process and implications of the Supreme Court issuing a writ of certiorari when deciding to take a case on appeal. What factors influence this decision?
12. Discuss the role of political action committee (PAC) donations in the electoral process, focusing on how they primarily benefit incumbents seeking reelection. Analyze the implications of this trend.

End of Paper