

Multiple Choice (10 marks)

1. The primary function of political action committees (PACs) is to
 - (a) contribute money to candidates for election
 - (b) coordinate local get-out-the-vote campaigns
 - (c) promote the defeat of incumbents in the federal and state legislatures
 - (d) organize protest demonstrations and other acts of civil disobedience
2. Which committee in the House of Representatives determines the procedure by which bills are debated and amended?
 - (a) Ways and Means
 - (b) Judiciary
 - (c) Ethics
 - (d) Rules
3. The No Child Left Behind Act, which established educational standards that states must meet to receive federal educational funding, is an example of which of the following?
 - (a) A federal mandate
 - (b) A constitutional amendment
 - (c) Affirmative action
 - (d) Tort reform
4. Why might the 'Philadelphian System' be linked to the idea of American exceptionalism?
 - (a) It encouraged greater involvement in European politics
 - (b) It was designed as the antithesis of European politics
 - (c) It created a large standing army
 - (d) It encouraged the centralization of political power in the US
5. When considering economic tools for security policy, which of the following is the odd one out?
 - (a) Withdrawal of economic trade rights with the domestic market.
 - (b) Export controls protecting technological advantage and further foreign policy objectives.
 - (c) Control of munitions and arms sales.
 - (d) Import restrictions to protect a domestic market from foreign goods.

True / False (10 marks)

Answer True or False

6. True or False: The salience of a political issue is determined by the amount of coverage it receives in major news media.
7. True or False: The responsibility to prevent is a fundamental element of the responsibility to protect doctrine.
8. True or False: Autocracy is not a component of the 'American Creed', which emphasizes liberty, equality, and individualism.
9. True or False: The phrase 'empire by invitation' refers to voluntary reliance on an external power for security.
10. True or False: Voters have become increasingly focused on individual candidates in presidential elections since 1972.

Long Form Response (20 marks)

Answer each question with a clear and complete explanation.

11. Discuss the concept of Offshore Balancing in grand strategy, focusing on its key policies and implications for international relations and state security responsibilities.
12. Discuss how American political parties differ from those in multiparty systems like England and Israel in terms of ideological consistency and identification.

End of Paper