

Multiple Choice (10 marks)

1. Describe three processes which are considered to be instrumental in the learning of attitudes.
 - (a) Direct teaching, Punishment, and Extrinsic motivation
 - (b) Cognitive dissonance, Role-playing, and Observational learning
 - (c) Trial and error, Social comparison, and Imitation
 - (d) Exposure, Reinforcement, and Social learning
 - (e) Positive reinforcement, Direct teaching, and Emotional conditioning
2. As psychologists began to study the effects of mass communication, they saw the need to distinguish between education and propaganda. Is there a distinction, and if so, what is it?
 - (a) The distinction is dependent on which view you choose to take
 - (b) Propaganda disseminates false information, while education provides only true information
 - (c) Education is designed for individual learning, while propaganda targets groups
 - (d) Propaganda is always biased
 - (e) Propaganda is a form of education that focuses on cultural knowledge
3. The position on the basilar membrane at which waves reach their peak depends on the frequency of a tone, according to which theory?
 - (a) frequency theory
 - (b) dual-process theory
 - (c) specificity theory
 - (d) trichromatic
 - (e) gestalt theory
4. Discuss the three attributes of color. Why do red and pink appear to be different colors?
 - (a) Saturation, tone, and pigment
 - (b) Intensity, shade, and tone
 - (c) Chroma, contrast, and clarity
 - (d) Brightness, shade, and chroma
 - (e) Hue, brightness and saturation

5. The Intelligence Quotient is defined as the
- (a) chronological age/verbal score $\times 100$
 - (b) mental age/performance score $\times 100$
 - (c) chronological age/performance score $\times 100$
 - (d) verbal score/chronological age $\times 100$
 - (e) verbal score/performance score $\times 100$

True / False (10 marks)

Answer True or False

- 6. True or False: Receptors in the retina have different resting potentials compared to receptors in the cochlea, influencing their function.
- 7. True or False: A person with Wernicke's aphasia typically exhibits fluent but unintelligible speech.
- 8. True or False: The desire to reproduce is mainly determined by cultural factors rather than biological imperatives.
- 9. True or False: A teratogen is any substance that can negatively impact fetal development during pregnancy.
- 10. True or False: Providing information contrary to beliefs, equal-status contact, and interdependence are effective methods for reducing prejudice.

Long Form Response (20 marks)

Answer each question with a clear and complete explanation.

- 11. Discuss the implications of twin studies on the role of heredity in shaping personality, considering the extent to which genetics may overshadow environmental influences.
- 12. Discuss the components of Needs Analysis in the context of training programs. Explain which aspect is not typically included and analyze its implications for effective training design.

End of Paper