

Multiple Choice

1. Answer: D

Options: A) Incarnation; B) Logos of God; C) Jesus as messiah and saviour; D) All of the above

Note: The Gospel of John encompasses multiple theological concepts, including the divinity of Christ, the importance of love and community, and the significance of eternal life, making "All of the above" the correct answer.

2. Answer: B

Options: A) Trace; B) Original ground; C) Manifestation; D) True sign

Note: The term honji in Tendai Buddhism refers to the concept of "original ground," which signifies the fundamental nature or source of reality from which all phenomena arise.

3. Answer: A

Options: A) Criminal; B) Neutral; C) Unlawful; D) Commendable

Note: The correct answer is "Criminal" because Shari'ah law primarily encompasses categories such as rituals, family law, and commercial law, but does not include a distinct category labeled explicitly as "criminal."

4. Answer: C

Options: A) An oil; B) Prophecy; C) A spiritual gift; D) Authority

Note: Charism is defined as a spiritual gift because it refers to a special grace or ability bestowed by the Holy Spirit for the purpose of building up the Church and serving others.

5. Answer: B

Options: A) Puranas; B) Bishnoi; C) Rajasthan; D) Jambho

Note: The Bishnoi community is known for its deep-rooted commitment to environmental conservation and animal protection, exemplified by their historical actions to save trees and wildlife in Rajasthan, India.

True / False

6. Answer: True

Options: A) True; B) False

Note: Digambara southerners, a sect of Jainism, hold that complete renunciation of worldly possessions, including clothing, symbolizes the ultimate non-attachment to the material world and spiritual liberation.

7. Answer: True

Options: A) True; B) False

Note: The numen of Augustus signifies the divine presence and approval attributed to him as a ruler, emphasizing his perceived god-like authority and power in Roman society.

8. Answer: True

Options: A) True; B) False

Note: In Jaina traditions, 'bad karma' is indeed referred to as Paap, highlighting the belief that negative actions lead to detrimental consequences in the cycle of birth and rebirth.

9. Answer: True

Options: A) True; B) False

Note: In Islam, jurisprudence is primarily derived from the Quran and Hadith rather than the concept of divine inspiration, which is more closely associated with the prophetic revelations.

10. Answer: True

Options: A) True; B) False

Note: Reconstructionist Judaism, founded by Mordechai Kaplan in the early 20 th century, emphasizes a contemporary understanding of Jewish identity, culture, and religious practice, making the statement true.

Long Form Response

11. Answer: Rabi'a al-Adawiyya was a prominent woman mystic in Islamic history, known for her profound teachings on love and devotion to God. Living in the 8 th century, she exemplified the concept of all-consuming love for the divine through her passionate poetry and her life of asceticism. Rabi'a believed that true love for God transcends fear of punishment and desire for reward; instead, it should be a pure, selfless devotion. Her famous declaration, "O God, if I worship You for fear of Hell, burn me in Hell, and if I worship You in hope of Paradise, exclude me from Paradise. But if I worship You for Your own sake, do not deny me Your eternal beauty," encapsulates her unique spiritual journey. Through her teachings and actions, Rabi'a inspires many to pursue a deeper, more intimate relationship with the divine based on love rather than self-interest.

Note: correct because it accurately presents Rabi'a al-Adawiyya's life and teachings, emphasizing her unique perspective on divine love as a selfless devotion that surpasses motivations of fear and reward, illustrated through her poetry and ascetic lifestyle.

12. Answer: Sita is often seen as the embodiment of the ideal wife in Hindu tradition due to her unwavering loyalty, strength, and commitment to her husband, Rama. Throughout the Ramayana, she exemplifies the virtues of duty and devotion, remaining faithful even in the face of great adversity, such as her abduction by Ravana. Her resilience in maintaining her integrity and supporting Rama's quest to rescue her highlights the importance of dharma, or duty, in personal and family relationships. Sita's character serves as a model for women in society, illustrating the values of self-sacrifice and fidelity, which are central themes in the epic. Ultimately, her role reinforces the idea that true devotion often involves profound trials and challenges, making her a timeless symbol in Hindu culture.

Note: The answer correctly identifies Sita's qualities of loyalty, strength, and commitment as central to her role as the ideal wife in Hindu tradition, illustrating how her experiences in the Ramayana exemplify the themes of duty and devotion.