

Multiple Choice (10 marks)

1. Which material is the best heat insulator?
 - (a) glass
 - (b) metal
 - (c) water
 - (d) wood
2. A single-cell organism can do everything a cell from a multicellular organism can do except
 - (a) specialize.
 - (b) reproduce.
 - (c) use energy.
 - (d) make protein.
3. There are a total of eight planets that orbit the Sun. How many of the other planets orbit in the same direction as Earth?
 - (a) 0
 - (b) 1
 - (c) 4
 - (d) 7
4. Which land form is the result of the constructive force of a glacier?
 - (a) valleys carved by a moving glacier
 - (b) piles of rocks deposited by a melting glacier
 - (c) grooves created in a granite surface by a glacier
 - (d) bedrock hills roughened by the passing of a glacier
5. The average temperatures over a four-month period were 31, 24, 18, and 12 degrees Celsius. What is the median temperature for these four months?
 - (a) 15
 - (a) 21
 - (a) 27
 - (a) 33

True / False (10 marks)

Answer True or False

6. True or False: Newts drop their tails when threatened as a strategy to escape predators.
7. True or False: The marketing department of a manufacturing organization handles shipping and storage of products to customers.
8. True or False: Roasting marshmallows over a fire is an example of a chemical change due to the formation of new substances.
9. True or False: Hydraulic systems are open systems, whereas pneumatic systems are closed systems.
10. True or False: The correct order from largest to smallest is Jupiter, Sun, Earth, Moon.

Long Form Response (20 marks)

Answer each question with a clear and complete explanation.

11. Explain how you would convert a height measurement of 6 feet into metric units. Discuss the process and significance of using different measurement systems in science.
12. Discuss the geological processes that can lead to the arrangement of rock layers where younger layers are situated beneath older layers, and analyze their significance in understanding Earth's history.

End of Paper