

Multiple Choice (10 marks)

1. Parsons argued that the two main functions of the modern family were:
  - (a) secondary socialization and strict discipline
  - (b) emotional support and sexual gratification
  - (c) primary socialization and personality stabilization
  - (d) oppressing women and reproducing the labour force
2. In Patterson's study of Brixton, it was found that:
  - (a) black and white residents competed for economic resources
  - (b) African-Caribbean migrants were concentrated in the poorest and most expensive housing
  - (c) white working class communities resented the arrival of black families
  - (d) all of the above
3. The tripartite system used the 11+ exam to select pupils for:
  - (a) popular schools that lay outside their catchment area
  - (b) private, public and comprehensive schools
  - (c) grammar, technical, and secondary modern schools
  - (d) polytechnics, colleges and universities
4. What does Berger (1963) describe as a metaphor for social reality?
  - (a) a fairground ride
  - (b) a circus
  - (c) a puppet theatre
  - (d) a ballet
5. Social norms are:
  - (a) creative activities such as gardening, cookery and craftwork
  - (b) the symbolic representation of social groups in the mass media
  - (c) religious beliefs about how the world ought to be
  - (d) rules and expectations about interaction that regulate social life

True / False (10 marks)

Answer True or False

6. True or False: The term 'culture industry' refers to the commercialization of cultural products for profit, as discussed by the Frankfurt School.
7. True or False: Weber argued that the 'spirit of capitalism' is linked to Calvinists who practiced asceticism as a means to demonstrate their salvation.
8. True or False: Judith Butler argued that gender is performed through bodily gestures and styles, which contribute to the construction of 'sex'.
9. True or False: The 'crisis of the 1970 s' is characterized by declining profits and rising unemployment across various sectors.
10. True or False: Giddens (1998) included the democratization of the family as a key element of New Labour's 'third way'.

Long Form Response (20 marks)

Answer each question with a clear and complete explanation.

11. Discuss the definition of poverty used by the United States government, focusing on its historical context, adjustments for inflation, and implications for social policy.
12. Discuss the findings of Sullivan's (2000) study on the dynamics of housework distribution among men, focusing on the impact of employment status on their contributions to household labor.

End of Paper