

Multiple Choice (10 marks)

1. The terms 'crisis of the 1970 s' is used to refer to:
 - (a) declining profits and rising unemployment
 - (b) the eradication of the welfare state
 - (c) rising divorce rates and the decline of the traditional family
 - (d) an unfortunate twist in fashion sensibility
2. Sullivan's (2000) study suggested that the proportion of housework men did was greatest when:
 - (a) they had rediscovered themselves as 'new men'
 - (b) their wives were at home and nagged them all the time
 - (c) exciting gadgets like the hoover and electric iron were invented
 - (d) they were unemployed or both partners worked full time
3. One of the difficulties in 'operationalizing' concepts like social class is that:
 - (a) definitions and indicators can vary, making valid comparisons problematic
 - (b) there are no reliable indicators of such widely contested ideas
 - (c) it takes all the fun out of armchair theorising
 - (d) it has little use for applied, empirical research about the topic
4. In idealized views of science, the experimental method is said to involve:
 - (a) testing out new research methods to see which one works best
 - (b) isolating and measuring the effect of one variable upon another
 - (c) using personal beliefs and values to decide what to study
 - (d) interpreting data subjectively, drawing on theoretical paradigms
5. White-collar crime is low in visibility because:
 - (a) it involves only small amounts of money
 - (b) the proletariat can outsmart the bourgeoisie
 - (c) the police turn a blind eye to corporate crime
 - (d) it goes undetected in the context of everyday business transactions

True / False (10 marks)

Answer True or False

6. True or False: Eyeballing is a technique that requires keeping your eyes on research participants at all times.
7. True or False: Terrorism is primarily a local issue, unrelated to international relations or political conflicts.
8. True or False: The demographic transition is characterized by a decline in birth rates, increased life expectancy, and an ageing population.
9. True or False: Impersonal rules are a core characteristic of Weber's ideal type of bureaucracy.
10. True or False: Marx argued that religion would vanish when church attendance fell below a certain percentage, such as 15%.

Long Form Response (20 marks)

Answer each question with a clear and complete explanation.

11. Discuss the process of socialization, examining its significance in shaping individual identity and facilitating membership within society.
12. Discuss the concept of vertical mobility in sociology, analyzing its implications for social structure and individual identity within society.

End of Paper