

Multiple Choice (20 marks)

1. Barry reported that in his study, the relationship between religiosity and academic grades was not statistically significant. By "not statistically..."
 - (a) were not important
 - (b) were not strong
 - (c) might have been due to chance
 - (d) were of no value to statisticians
2. The fact that Will was better able to memorize his lines in the school play after finding out the meanings behind the words best illustrates the influence of
 - (a) chunking
 - (b) shaping
 - (c) maintenance rehearsal
 - (d) semantic memory
3. Aisha is a beautiful, black teenager. If she is typical, she most likely believes that
 - (a) white teenagers are superior to black teenagers
 - (b) Asian teenagers are superior to black teenagers
 - (c) Hispanic teenagers are superior to black teenagers
 - (d) black teenagers are superior to white teenagers
4. Loss of the ability to understand language results from loss of tissue in which of the following lobes?
 - (a) right frontal
 - (b) right temporal
 - (c) right parietal
 - (d) left temporal
5. According to the Law of Effect, behaviors followed by negative consequences
 - (a) occur more frequently
 - (b) occur less frequently
 - (c) will never be performed again
 - (d) will be performed more forcefully
6. Which of the following brain structures is most centrally involved in hunger motivation?

- (a) cerebellum
 - (b) medulla
 - (c) amygdala
 - (d) hypothalamus
7. Why might a researcher use a variable ratio of reinforcement rather than a fixed ratio?
- (a) Fixed ratio schedules of reinforcements are more time intensive.
 - (b) Variable ratio schedules of reinforcements produce results more quickly.
 - (c) Variable ratio schedules of reinforcements avoid problems such as generalization and the Premack principle.
 - (d) Variable ratio schedules of reinforcement are more resistant to extinction than fixed schedules.
8. The ability to solve a new computer game based on logical puzzles probably depends on which kind of intelligence?
- (a) fluid intelligence
 - (b) crystallized intelligence
 - (c) aptitude intelligence
 - (d) achievement intelligence
9. Which of the following refers to the benefit of having an emotional release to reduce aggressive tendencies?
- (a) James-Lange theory of emotion
 - (b) Counterconditioning
 - (c) Catharsis hypothesis
 - (d) Transference
10. Garcia and Koelling's research regarding learned aversions established that which of the following UCS and CS pairs are the most powerful and learned most...
- (a) performing a task and receiving a food reward
 - (b) nausea and food or drink
 - (c) movement and shock
 - (d) punishments and rewards

True / False (20 marks)

Answer True or False and justify briefly.

1. True or False: The correct answer to 'Species-specific behaviors that cannot be explained as a result of social learning or conditioning, such as Monarch butterflies flying to...' is 'motives'.
2. True or False: The correct answer to 'People who have previously not gotten along are often able to put aside their differences in the face of a mutual crisis. Their need to...' is 'superordinate goal'.
3. True or False: The correct answer to 'Nell decides not to throw her stuffed animal in the toilet after she witnesses her brother Matthew being punished for putting his stuffed...' is 'tutelage'.
4. True or False: The correct answer to 'During the manic phase of a bipolar disorder, individuals are most likely to experience' is 'high self-esteem'.
5. True or False: The correct answer to 'Emotional, cognitive, and behavioral tendencies that constitute underlying personality dimensions on which individuals vary are referred...' is 'traits'.
6. True or False: The correct answer to 'Sigmund Freud was the founder of which of the following perspectives in psychology?' is 'Cognitive'.
7. True or False: The correct answer to 'Which of the following terms applies to IQ tests?' is 'projective'.
8. True or False: The correct answer to 'Someone with brain damage who has difficulty making the muscle movements needed to produce accurate speech might have damage to which...' is 'hippocampus'.
9. True or False: The correct answer to 'According to Abraham Maslow, esteem needs must at least be partially met before one is prompted to satisfy' is 'self-actualization needs'.
10. True or False: The correct answer to 'Of the following, which is characteristic of formal operational thinking?' is 'failure to understand reversibility'.

End of Paper